

Submission Instructions for Emerge 2017

Juried Student Photography Exhibition

Art Intersection invites student photographers enrolled in an Arizona high school (including home school students), community college, art school, or university to submit work for consideration in Emerge 2017, a juried exhibition of student photography.

About Art Intersection

Through our staff and facility, we promote the mission to Learn – Create – Exhibit as we embrace the intersection of photography with related art forms.

Our Photographic Arts Lab offers a fully outfitted facility for the beginning, amateur, and professional photographer to practice the art of photography. This is the Learn and Create space for photography at Art Intersection.

Wood floors, brick walls, and metal ceilings blend to create an inviting environment welcoming visitors to enjoy exhibitions in the Galleries at Art Intersection. This is the Exhibit space at Art Intersection serving to support the gathering of artists and art enthusiasts for exhibitions, lectures, seminars, and meetings.

About Emerge 2017

Art Intersection presents Emerge 2017, our seventh annual exhibition of photography from student photographers enrolled in an Arizona public or private high school, homeschool, college, art school, or university. As part of our mission to support emerging photographers, we offer student photographers of any age, from high school freshman to senior citizens, an opportunity to show their work in the North and South Galleries at Art Intersection.

About the Juror

Clare Benson is a photographer and interdisciplinary artist from the United States. Her work has been exhibited and screened throughout the US and internationally. In 2014/2015, she received a Fulbright Fellowship to conduct research in northern Sweden at the Swedish Institute of Space Physics. Other recent awards include the Magenta Foundation Flash Forward, PDN Emerging Photographer, and the Joyce Elaine Grant Solo Show Award.

Benson earned her MFA at University of Arizona in Tucson, and her BFA at Central Michigan University.
