

Submission Instructions for Emerge 2018

Juried Student Photography Exhibition

Art Intersection invites student photographers enrolled in an Arizona high school (including home school students), community college, art school, or university to submit work for consideration in Emerge 2018, a juried exhibition of student photography.

About Art Intersection

Through our staff and facility, we promote the mission to Learn – Create – Exhibit as we embrace the intersection of photography with related art forms.

Our Photographic Arts Lab offers a fully outfitted facility for the beginning, amateur, and professional photographer to practice the art of photography. This is the Learn and Create space for photography at Art Intersection.

Wood floors, brick walls, and metal ceilings blend to create an inviting environment welcoming visitors to enjoy exhibitions in the Galleries at Art Intersection. This is the Exhibit space at Art Intersection serving to support the gathering of artists and art enthusiasts for exhibitions, lectures, seminars, and meetings.

About Emerge 2018

Art Intersection presents Emerge 2018, our eighth annual exhibition of photography from student photographers enrolled in an Arizona public or private high school, homeschool, college, art school, or university. As part of our mission to support emerging photographers, we offer student photographers of any age, from high school freshman to senior citizens, an opportunity to show their work in the North and South Galleries at Art Intersection.

About the Juror

Ashley Czajkowski, a photography-based artist, works in a number of interdisciplinary methods. Driven by personal experience, her research explores social constructions related to femininity, mortality and the psychological manifestation of the human-animal. Though she considers herself a photographer, Czajkowski also works in video, installation, and alternative print processes, pushing the expected boundaries of the photographic art medium.

Czajkowski achieved her Bachelor of Fine Arts in 2009 from Emporia State University in Kansas, and in 2015 she earned her Master of Fine Arts in photography from Arizona State University. Czajkowski's work has been exhibited across the United States and internationally. Most recently her work was shown at the Soho Photo Gallery in New York, The Millepiani Art Space in Rome, and the CICA Museum in South Korea. She currently resides in Tempe, Arizona and in 2017 received the inaugural TAFF Award from Phoenix Artlink. Czajkowski teaches photography courses, works as the sound technician and story editor for the Creative Push Project, and is a member and former President of Eye Lounge Gallery, an artist collective in downtown Phoenix.
