

Call for Work - Light Sensitive 2020 - Submission Guidelines

Art Intersection invites artists to submit artwork for consideration in Light Sensitive, a celebration of traditional and alternative photographic printing processes.

Light Sensitive, an exhibition dedicated to presenting art created using traditional darkroom and alternative photographic processes, has grown to become an internationally acknowledged signature exhibition for this art genre. In the current trend of imagery presented on computer screens and the overwhelming volume of digitally printed pictures, Light Sensitive reaffirms and promotes the art of handcrafted prints that uniquely belong to the tradition of light sensitive creative processes.

Awards for *Light Sensitive

First place $350

Second place $250

Third place $150

Three honorable mentions

Art Intersection will pay return postage for individuals receiving one of the above awards and honorable mentions.

About the Juror

Brett Abbott serves as the Director of Collections and Exhibitions at the Amon Carter Museum of American Art in Fort Worth, where he provides leadership for the museum's curatorial, conservation, registration, archives, exhibition, and publication programs. A specialist in American photography of the 20th and 21st centuries, he has organized more than thirty exhibitions and contributed to more than a dozen publications in the field. He came to the Carter having served in curatorial roles at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta and the J. Paul Getty Museum in Los Angeles.

About Art Intersection

Through our staff and facility, we promote the mission to Learn – Create – Exhibit as we embrace the intersection of photography with related art forms.

Wood floors, brick walls, and metal ceilings blend to create an inviting environment welcoming visitors to enjoy exhibitions in the Galleries at Art Intersection. The Exhibit space at Art Intersection serves to support the gathering of collectors, artists, and art enthusiasts for exhibitions, lectures, seminars, and meetings.

Our Photographic Arts Lab offers a fully outfitted darkroom and digital facility for the beginning, amateur, and professional photographer to engage in the art of photography. This is the Learn and Create space at Art Intersection.
